Tip or Complaint: On such dates above at above stated plant Nyrstar Zinc Plant in clarksville tn there is what they call a roaster dome where it makes an produces material that is then sent across the road to leach purification the roaster dome itself is leaking what they call SO2 gas from the top the dome has multiple holes in it some days the gas gets so bad the area has to be cleared I myself was doing a job near the roaster dome when gasses came across the road I think this needs to be addressed in some sort of fashion because I believe myself it's not only an environmental hazard but a hazard to others working in the area although the roaster is shut down at the moment bc of them losing feed pumps but will soon be back online an running without repairs made to the dome to keep gasses an material in the dome thanks an have a great day.
